Fairfield, Iowa (16 March 2018) – Cutie Showroom Fine Art ZOOMED!!! is pleased to present “From Unmanifest to Manifest in the Art of Hyper Pop Surrealism” by Michael Andrew Law, Hong Kong contemporary artist.

Michael Andrew Law, Hong Kong contemporary artist, is now having his paintings displayed in Gate Ridge Building Suite 205. Admission is free through March 30, 2018.

The displayed series “From Unmanifest to Manifest in the Art of Hyper Pop Surrealism” are 11 oil paintings including portraits of Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, President John Hagelin, Dr. David Lynch, Dr. Fred Travis and Mr. Bob Roth, in sizes from 36”x36” to 51”x71”. All of these original paintings are donated for the benefit of Maharishi University of Management and David Lynch Foundation. Purchases will be possible after March 30 and all proceeds will go directly to either of the two beneficiaries.

The first completed painting in the donation was the birthday gift to the artist’s mom who encouraged him to resume the regular practice of TM while he was facing a huge challenge in life. He did that, has experienced the changes within himself, and so desires to help others the same through the donation to MUM and David Lynch Foundation.

It is also hoped that the art display can inspire some creative insights among MUM students, and also be enjoyed by the whole community before purchases take place.

PRINTS of the gift for his mom’s birthday can be available to visitors who want to support his art display and his mom’s own PhD study at MUM. The Cutie Showroom is open regularly from 3-4 pm Monday through Friday; and 3-4 pm by appointment on Saturdays and Sundays.
